

FLOOR

2

10 Dobra of 24 escudos

11 Personalised banknotes and coins

12 1000 escudo banknote Queen Maria II

6 "Português"

9 500 escudo banknote Alves dos Reis' scandal

8 "Morabitino"

7 Augmented reality

FLOOR

1

13 Understanding Banco de Portugal

5 Chinese banknote

3 Interactive world map

4 One-third stater

FLOOR

0

14 Memory of the place - film

2 Hermes

1 Gold bar

FLOOR

-1

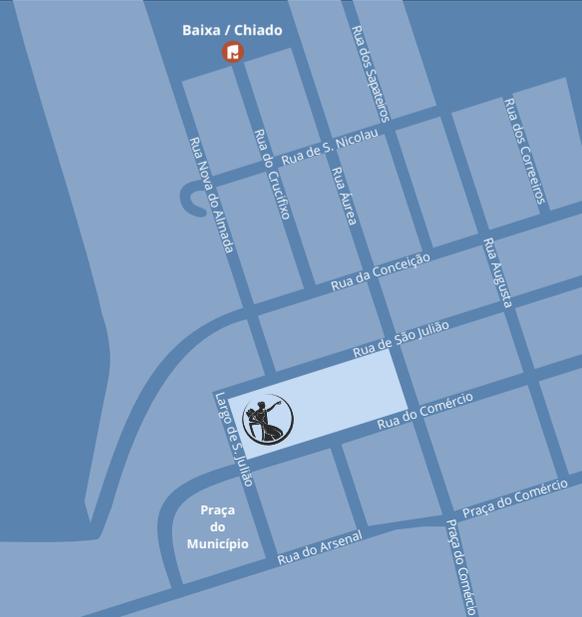

15 King Dinis' Wall

- Reception
- Stairs
- Toilets
- Lift

MONEY MUSEUM
BANCO DE PORTUGAL

Largo de S. Julião, Lisboa
Free admission
Wednesday to Sunday | 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
To book T + 351 213 213 240
info@museudodinheiro.pt
www.museudodinheiro.pt

1 Gold bar

Over 12.6 kg of refined gold, nearly pure (99.9%), touch-accessible and protected by the door of the former gold vault.

2 Hermes

Hermes, the Greek god of trade and barter, offers an interactive experience, proposing a direct exchange of goods as other forms of money.

3 Interactive world map

Navigate through time and space and discover relevant facts about the history of money around the world.

4 One-third stater

The first Western coin appeared in Lydia (present-day Turkey) in the 7th Century BC and is made of electrum, an alloy of gold and silver.

5 Chinese banknote

The first Oriental banknote appeared in China in the 9th Century AD. This banknote was initially worth 1000 bronze coins and anyone forging it faced the death penalty.

6 "Português" of King Manuel I

A gold coin minted between 1499 and 1521, representative of the political and monetary ostentation of the Age of Discovery.

7 Augmented reality

A fun, interactive screen that allows the visitor to manoeuvre, rotate and enlarge the coins on display.

8 "Morabitino" of King Sancho II

This gold coin is the last morabitino minted in Portugal and the only known example in the world!

INCM collection

9 500 escudo banknote – Alves dos Reis' scandal

The false (and the genuine) banknote that made Alves dos Reis famous as one of the greatest fraudsters in the history of Portugal.

10 Dobra of 24 escudos

The largest and heaviest gold coin in Portuguese history, at 85 grams, and almost as large as a biscuit.

INCM collection

11 Personalised banknotes and coins

Interactive experiences allowing visitors to 'mint' a coin and 'issue' a banknote with their face depicted.

12 1000 escudo banknote – Queen Maria II

This 1000 escudo banknote features various elements alluding to the story of its issuer, such as the portrait of Queen Maria II, during whose reign Banco de Portugal was founded.

13 Understanding Banco de Portugal

Learn about the mission of the central bank, its main responsibilities, and how it makes a difference to people's lives.

14 Memory of the place

Multimedia film illustrating the developments of the area around Banco de Portugal's headquarters and the Money Museum: the medieval era, the Pombaline reconstruction and the present-day city.

15 King Dinis' Wall

This national monument has witnessed key episodes in the life of a king, the city and its history.

15 things you must see

MONEY MUSEUM